

THE LOUISVILLE DAILY DEMOCRAT.

VOLUME XXIV.

LOUISVILLE, KENTUCKY: SATURDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 9, 1867.

NUMBER 99.

J.P.F.A. COLONISTS.

How they were Dressed—Their Wretched Condition—The Quaker City Brings Away about Forty.

Mark Twain's letter to the New York Tribune.

ALEXANDRIA, EGYPT, Oct. 2.

The American excursion steamer Quaker City arrived here to day from Jaffa.

The Quaker City brings about thirty or forty old Adams' American Colonists.

They have been deserting before, and now the rest of the colonists who had been landed in Palestine a year ago, have returned.

Fifteen still remain outside the city of Jaffa, while Adams, the captain, and his officers, are all left in the original 160 that sailed here twelve months ago, to found a new nation.

The colonists have been well received by the public.

The country was a failure, and the colonists have been scattered.

The Quaker City has been welcomed by the people.

The sun rose gloriously brilliant one.

The sun rose beautifully, throwing its golden rays over the eastern hills, causing the forest-covered forests to gleam as if beamed with diamonds.

The yellowish leaf at first attracted the attention and admiration of the lovers of nature, and, in fact, all things tended to gladden the hearts of the students who had come to the land.

The two weeks passing with me, perhaps, because use of engineering in the present to effect this change.

The school was closed, and the schoolroom was left empty.

Daily Bazaar
SECOND EDITION.

BY TELEGRAPH.

THE SOUTH.
DEMOCRATIC MAJORITY IN MARYLAND 40,000.

ASHINGTON

SOLDIERS' PENSIONS--IMPORTANT DECISION.

The Alabama Convention.

The Negroes of Southwestern Virginia.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 5.

The Democratic majority in this State will reach nearly 40,000. The Marcellus, 15,000; Democrats voted yesterday, and were about 15,000; and you & I might add, a happy home & a good old school.

John Bull wants the English breed of cysters improved. They're nothing in English to Saddle Rocks and Shrewsbury.

John B. Gough and Wendell Phillips confess that they have never overcome their first timidity on rising to address an audience.

Jack Frost is on a stinging tour through the country. He will appear at the New York Winter's Tale, and probably Twelfth Night.

Omen Victoria has written to Lord Derby, suggesting that a fitting provision should be made for the widow of Prof. Faraday.

The venerable ex-Governor Levi Lincoln, of Massachusetts, has arrived from his ancestors in the Governor's chair.

The death of the Countess Galashan, distinguished member of the catholic aristocracy of England, is announced.

Prince Arthur will not be pitted with the small-pox, because it is said, of the application of chloroform to the vesicles of the face.

Walter Brown, the orator, has a friend who will bring him in any amount that he can walk 10 miles in 24 hours.

Weston says he is walking for money to pay off his debts. He is not the first man who has lost his legs to escape the small-pox. But perhaps he really means to foot his bills.

To show the fertility of French pens it is stated that M. Chamfleur has published forty volumes, M. Capeigne one hundred octavo volumes, Mme. Elie Berthet fifty novels, and M. Eribes fourty-eight plays.

Mrs. Fremont is writing a book—entitled unknown.

President Buchanan is not expected to live through the winter.

The Leaven Illinois Statesman nominates Vandigham for next President.

Sennies has two lectures—"The Law of Storms" and "The First Cruise of the Alabama."

In Elgin, Ill., a young lady recently died, and at her funeral, while her friends and friends were taking a last look at the loved face, young men to whom she had been engaged, and who had presented her with an engagement ring but a short time before her death, deliberately bent over the corpse and, in the presence of all the church, removed the ring from her finger and walked off with it.

The seven Hartford postmen get one thousand dollars a year salary apiece.

The fishermen of Maine say the mackerel catch this season will hardly pay expenses.

The last passage of the Cimbri was made in ten days and eighteen hours, mean time.

Another Sister of Charity has died in Mobile, Alabama, of yellow fever. Her name was Agnes Keegan, and she was hardly twenty-one years old. She had exhausted herself by taking care of the sick, and was literally a martyr to her angelic benevolence.

The city of Memphis owes $600,000 and can't pay it.

ACCIDENT ON THE NASHVILLE RAILROAD.—The train from the South, due in this city at ten o'clock Thursday night, encountered a severe obstruction at the Bardstown Junction, in the shape of a large tree that had fallen across the track. The locomotive and tender were very seriously damaged, and the rails torn up for some distance.

Owing to this accident the trains yesterday were out of time. The injury has been repaired and to-day there will be no interruption.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—Yesterday afternoon Wm. Fritch was thrown from a wood-wagon, in the alley between Second and Third Market and Jefferson, sustaining injuries about the skull that will prove fatal. He was removed to the house of Harry Bruns, where he received surgical attention.

Some smart fellow gets off the following:

Light music—Strains' waltzes.
A man's heart—The Langman's.
A bear's hug—With a kiss.
Yellow fever—the passion for gold.
The boys in blue—Despondent youths.
A gay nurse—The bosom of Mother Earth.

Literary tricks of Thackeray—Beatrice Empress.

The son of York—The establishment in Fulton street.

Bunyan's Pilgrim—Any poor fellow with a bad heart.

The best remedy for personal disagreements—The movement cure.

Men who attract women—Arists; because they always draw the women.

Self-made men are common now-a-days, but self-made women are common.

DR. MUD AND THE YELLOW FEVER AT DAYTON.—Dr. D. H. McPhail, Physician to the United States Army, has recently arrived at New Orleans from the Dry Tortugas. He states that Dr. Mud has been successful in his medical practice during the prevalence of the yellow fever at that port, while it was so bad that the surgeons were prostrated with it and no one could be obtained to replace him. His success is attributed to his skill and energy, and was increased to this that he may be ready for any emergency growing out of Congressional usurpation or negro rebellion.

The President, it is said, still believes the Rebels intend his deposition and assassination.

Gen. Sherman, on his arrival, will probably take the command. Forney's editorial showed his disapproval of the position of it, and said he had not authorized the editor to speak for him.

WEST INDIES.

SANTA ANNA FACING IN CUBA.

Progress of the Haytian Revolution

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.

The Herald's Havana correspondent says Santa Anna is thus engaged in numberless forms.

Advices from the Mexican capital in October state that President Juarez has been triumphantly re-elected.

Gen. Vicente Filisola is sent to negotiate a loan of $12,000,000 at Washington.

A Port of Princes on the night of the 12th of October, Gen. Alvarado, a demagogue, but not a traitor, was liberated, maintaining that he was unconstitutionally kept in custody.

It is learned that a majority of the Cuban, as well as the President, came to the conclusion that the message reports of the capture of Gen. Alvarado were false.

At Capo San Juan, the Spanish general, who had been sent to the protection of the public stores, and was ordered to this by the Convention, and who had been present with an engagement ring but a short time before his death, deliberately bent over the corpse and, in the presence of all the church, removed the ring from her finger and walked off with it.

An explosion and loss of life,

PITTSBURG, Nov. 7.

A fatal calamity occurred to-day about half past 10 o'clock. The citizens of the Ninth ward were startled by a loud report, which, it was discovered, was the detonation of a gunpowder mill situated in a building on the hill above the town, which had been erected for the colored schools of this district. The colored schools of this district held their annual report before the Secretary of War, and the colored children in the district accommodating two thousand pupils, and says that the report shows that the explosion occurred in the forge portion of the mill, and to add to this terrible scene, the报告者 says that the explosion was fully reduced to powder. There were 67 colored schools supported by Northern benevolent associations during the year, and an expense of $10,000. All the schools have opened this year with flattering prospects.

NEW ENGLAND.

FIRE IN SPRINGFIELD, MASS.

New York Chamber of Commerce

Weston, the Pedestrian.

Chief Justice Bigelow to Resign.

SPRINGFIELD, MASS., Nov. 7.

A frequent meeting of merchants in the Chamber of Commerce yesterday evening, despatching a committee to memorialize Congress to that effect.

A committee was also appointed to consider the subject of a revenue act.

SCOTTSDALE, N.Y., Nov. 8.

Weston, the pedestrian, arrived here at 10 o'clock this morning, and left at 7:30 this morning.

BUFFALO, N.Y., Nov. 8.

An important meeting of merchants to-day a committee was appointed to propose a revenue act.

Two thousand recruits are ready for the 30th of November, and will be forwarded.

The failure of a large dry goods jobbing firm is reported, but the name is not mentioned.

COLLECTOR OF INTERNAL REVENUE BALLET was before the grand jury to-day, which it is believed will soon present an indictment against the parties implicated in the Kentucky Bourbon Company's frauds.

There were considerable seizures of whiskey to-day, including one lot of 5,000 gallons.

John Wesley Whipple, who was a Revolutionary soldier. She is a relative of William Whipple, who was one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence. This venerable lady is a resident of Union Village, Washington county, N.Y., where she has resided the past eighty years. Her age is 101. She enjoys excellent health and is quite active. She draws from the government the yearly pension of $60. Efforts are being made to increase her pension.

It is an curious fact, that if a man is lost in the woods and continues walking, he will invariably go round in a circle, constantly veering to the left hand. It is the right side of the left-handed people, more developed than the left. Consequently the muscles of those who are the strongest, and tend to gradually throw the whole body round, unless the sin is treated to some particular point.

The people of Georgia are anxious for frost, as sickness prevails there to an alarming extent.

OTTAWA, CANADA, Nov. 8.

The Governor General delivered a speech to-day, in which he announced his intention of proceeding to America.

He is to leave on the 1st of December.

He is to leave on the 1st of December.

He is to leave on the 1st of December.

He is to leave on the 1st of December.

He is to leave on the 1st of December.

He is to leave on the 1st of December.

He is to leave on the 1st of December.

He is to leave on the 1st of December.

He is to leave on the 1st of December.

He is to leave on the 1st of December.

He is to leave on the 1st of December.

He is to leave on the 1st of December.

He is to leave on the 1st of December.

He is to leave on the 1st of December.

He is to leave on the 1st of December.

He is to leave on the 1st of December.

He is to leave on the 1st of December.

He is to leave on the 1st of December.

He is to leave on the 1st of December.

He is to leave on the 1st of December.

He is to leave on the 1st of December.

He is to leave on the 1st of December.

He is to leave on the 1st of December.

He is to leave on the 1st of December.

He is to leave on the 1st of December.

He is to leave on the 1st of December.

He is to leave on the 1st of December.

He is to leave on the 1st of December.

He is to leave on the 1st of December.

He is to leave on the 1st of December.

He is to leave on the 1st of December.

He is to leave on the 1st of December.

He is to leave on the 1st of December.

He is to leave on the 1st of December.

He is to leave on the 1st of December.

He is to leave on the 1st of December.

He is to leave on the 1st of December.

He is to leave on the 1st of December.

He is to leave on the 1st of December.

He is to leave on the 1st of December.

He is to leave on the 1st of December.

He is to leave on the 1st of December.

He is to leave on the 1st of December.

He is to leave on the 1st of December.

He is to leave on the 1st of December.

He is to leave on the 1st of December.

He is to leave on the 1st of December.

He is to leave on the 1st of December.

He is to leave on the 1st of December.

He is to leave on the 1st of December.

He is to leave on the 1st of December.

He is to leave on the 1st of December.

He is to leave on the 1st of December.

He is to leave on the 1st of December.

He is to leave on the 1st of December.

He is to leave on the 1st of December.

He is to leave on the 1st of December.

He is to leave on the 1st of December.

He is to leave on the 1st of December.

He is to leave on the 1st of December.

He is to leave on the 1st of December.

He is to leave on the 1st of December.

He is to leave on the 1st of December.

He is to leave on the 1st of December.

He is to leave on the 1st of December.